

Pastor Sylvester Mugabi

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Beloved saints,

Greetings from the road as we journey from Toronto to Minnesota. This mission has been deeply meaningful, and my heart is full of gratitude. God entrusted us with a message of reconciliation, and this time it came at the appointed moment—proof that the Lord makes everything beautiful in His time.

“Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.”

— 2 Corinthians 5:18 (NKJV)

I thank God for Apostle Adams Ssensano, a beloved brother in the Lord and a faithful missionary in Australia, who has continually taught us an important dimension of God’s heart—that the Lord desires His people to be spiritually strong and financially ordered. The Kingdom of God lacks nothing, and as the Church aligns with divine wisdom, the enemy is about to lose every financial battle concerning our lives and assignments.

“Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.”

— 3 John 1:2 (NKJV)

We stand firmly on the promise of God, declaring with confidence:

“And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”

— Philippians 4:19 (NKJV)

To all our partners and friends across the nations, thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and financial support. You are fellow laborers in this grace, and your generosity is bearing eternal fruit.

“For God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of love which you have shown toward His name.”

— Hebrews 6:10 (NKJV)

As the work continues, more help is needed in Butamiira, and as we begin preparations to return to Uganda in mid-March, we invite you to stand with us again—prayerfully, strategically, and as the Lord leads you.

“How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard?”

— Romans 10:14 (NKJV)

I remain continually amazed at how clearly the Holy Spirit speaks. He is our Helper, Comforter, and Guide, leading us into all truth and empowering us for every assignment. My prayer is to embrace Him more deeply, listen more closely, and obey more fully.

“However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth.”

— John 16:13 (NKJV)

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

In Jesus’ mighty name,

Amen.

— Pr. Sylvester Mugabi